HOW EIGHT BOSTON WOMEN HAD A DINNER.

The Boston Post tells the following story about a dinner at a famous Boston restaurant:

"Such a fame as Taft's makes dinner parties as innumerable as they are inviting, and it would be unaccountable on the doctrine of chance alone, if there did not now and then befall a funny incident to give piquancy as well as substantial delights to the Point Shirley entertainments. Taft tells one that has just occurred at his cozy quarters, but a sly wink given after the whispering was over enjoined the strictest incognito of all the parties concerned. It happened on the brightest and most deliciously cool day of the week, when the atmosphere, and the skies themselves, seemed attuned to the event which was celebrated. Eight married gentlemen of eminently epicurean tastes came together and set their minds on having a dinner. There were four Englishmen and four Americans, all of whom had tested the skill of cooks the world over. They wished to have everything complete, and going to Taft they gave him carte blanche for serving them up such a feast as they wanted. Preparations began forthwith, and all the resources and appliances of Taft's cuisine were brought into requisition.

"But meanwhile the wives of eight gentlemen got wind of the affair.—They learned to their just indignation that their husbands were preparing for a grand feast for their sole edification, and that eight plates only were to be laid at their table. Without waiting for an explanation they dispatched a messenger to Taft's and duplicated their husbands' order, to be served in a separate dining room. The bills of fare were to be identical, with the exception of cigars, and the strictest silence was enjoined. Not even a hint or a whisper was to pass between the husbands and the landlord. The hour appointed for the two dinners came, and the husbands sat down to their dinner and the wives to theirs. The tables bore the results of Taft's unrivalled taste and skill, and nothing was omitted to make it complete in every detail. Fish, birds, and all yielded their delicious mouthfuls, while the shining plate and excellent service was tickling to every sense.

"Not a word passed between the two spic-and-span dining-rooms. All unsuspecting the husbands drank a bumper to their wives at home, while the wives sipped the health of their husbands under the same hospitable roof. Dinner over the wives ordered their bill added to that of their husbands, and so the ruse was discovered. There is a pretty moral to all this, Taft thinks, and perhaps one hasn't far to search for it, either."

THE LATEST HERO.

From the Providence (R. I.) Journal.

Burke was mistaken! The age of chivalry is not passed. Heroism takes on different forms at different periods, and in different climes, but ever, in all communities, there are some who are in the highest and best sense chivalrous. Charles H. Roscoe, an engineer on the Providence and Springfield railroad, is entitled to the credit of performing a generous and daring feat which few would have attempted, and fewer still, perhaps, would have been able successfully to complete. On Friday evening Mr. James Black, of Pascoag, accompanied by two other men and his son, went in a boat upon the reservoir, fishing. The night was dark, foggy and rainy; the boat was overturned, and the occupants thrown into the water. One man swam for and reached the shore for aid; Mr. Black and his son were drowned; the fourth person clung to the boat, a half mile from the shore, for two and a half hours, shouting for help. No one dared brave the darkness and danger of the hour. At last Mr. Roscoe heard of the casualty, and seizing a lantern, hurried to the scene. Realizing the urgency of the case, he sprang into the water and swam to the boat, and found the survivor badly bruised, and unable either to keep on top of the boat or swim ashore. After a short rest, Roscoe swam back, towing the boat and man, and, it turned out, the stone by which the boat had been anchored—He thought it a heavy drag at the time, but it lightened more than one heart, his own included.

The saving of that life, under the circumstances, was as genuine a heroism as ever poet sang, and entitles the preserver to rank among the few who, in an emergency, are quick-witted and brave. The body of the boy has been recovered.

An Iowa editor lately "made one" of a croquet party, and now he mourns because he hasn't a "pen plucked by the queen of fairies from the brightest and most gorgeously tinted tuft of the bird of paradise, and dipped in golden ink," to write a description of it.

A California man ran off with a woman. They walked fifty miles, were married, and the next day were both arrested for stealing a pocket-handkerchief from the woman's former husband.

DECATUR, ILLINOIS:

Tuesday Evening, Sept. 30.

PROBABLY OVER.

The panic which has been upon the country for the past two weeks seems to have entirely subsided, and nought but the effects of the storm can now be seen. That the quieting down will consume more time than the stirring up is possible, but the scare is already over. People have about all come to the conclusion that the country is not on the down grade to perdition with the brakes loose, and the anxiety is therefore allayed, but it will still require some time to bring the business of the country down to its ordinary degree of quietude and regularity. The unsettling of all values, the almost total annihilation of some classes of securities and the shrinkage of nearly all merely speculative stocks can have no other effect than that of temporarily depressing business of all kinds. But this condition of uncertainty in regard to the general business of the country cannot be of long duration. The finances, politically speaking, are settled.—There is not much prospect of any change being made in our financial system by the next Congress, and as the era of speculation is now over the laws of legitimate trade will speedily cause business to seek and find its natural level. That somebody will suffer while this gravitating process is going on cannot be doubted, but that the masses of the people will lose we do not believe The country is in a healthy condition, the crops are fair, the foreign demand for our produce is great, the balance of trade is in our favor, the people have been studying and practicing economy, the currency is good, and everything betokens a season of marked prosperity.

Let the people possess their souls in patience, and calmly wait for the coming of the bright days that are in store for us.

SUPERVISORS' PROCEEDINGS.

On motion of Supervisor Ward that the further consideration of said resolution be laid over until next Tuesday.

The yeas and nays were called, and the vote ordered to be recorded—the same was decided in the negative: Supervisors Camron, Hughes, Morse, Orr, Park, Ruddock and Spangler voting against (7), and Supervisors A. T. Davis, Wm. Davis, Dingman, Lehman, Patterson and Ward voting for (6).

FROM KANSAS.

TOPEKA, KANSAS, Sept. 1873.

EDITORS REPUBLICAN:—I thought I would give you a few items picked up on my way from Macon county, Ill., to Kansas. We left home on the 23d, got to St. Louis the same evening—lay over night there and next morning took the train for the west via the Missouri Pacific Railroad. The first thing that attracted my attention on the train was about a dozen fellows with badges on the coat collar, and all wearing the same kind of white hats, with wide black bands. I first thought they were all in mourning; and they may have been in mourning for the "lost cause," for they proved to be a part of the Texas editors on their way home from their northern excursion. They were a thirsty set of fellows—at every place the train stopped, they broke for a saloon.

Thirteen miles west of Sedalia, we came up to the wreck of a freight train that had ran off of a bridge, four cars going down an embankment about twenty-five feet.—This detained us so that we did not get into Kansas City until about daylight, and after the trains had left for Topeka. The grumbling and not a few oaths that were heard around the Laclede hotel this morning were fearful, on account of delays—all anxious to see the Great West.

Upon inquiry at the stations all along the route I found that there were poor crops; all complain of the drouth during the month of August. I saw no corn as good on the way as we have in Macon county, except it was in the Missouri river bottoms. All the small streams are dry and the Missouri is very low. I was told at Kansas City there were very few steamboats that could or did run at all; we saw but one on the way up from St. Louis to Atchison, and that a very small one.

To-day I heard men say "beautiful day," "fine day," but I couldn't see it, for my eyes were nearly full of dirt and sand. I am told that they have strong winds here almost all the time. On the way out to the fall ground the road looked like it had been swept with a broom, the dust was constantly being blown away.

The first person I met here that I knew was Mr. John Davis, formerly of Macon county, Ill.; he likes the State very much, and could not be induced to move back to Illinois. He is President of the Farmers' Co-Operative Association of the State of Kansas, and soon after we met he presented me with the Lawrence Standard, containing an address by him on the subject of National Finance, entitled "The National Bank Monopoly, or Financial Devil Fish of America," and in the short space of six columns he sums up all the financial and political troubles of the country. I had quite a pleasant talk for an hour and a half with him at the Gordon House; he is an earnest advocate of the "farmers' movement," and gave me a pressing invitation to visit him before returning home.

Now a word about the Fair: I think the grounds are perhaps one-half larger than those of Macon county, and are very pretty indeed. They are about two miles from Topeka, situated on a level piece of ground. All the fences and stalls were white, and looked new, from the new coat of whitewash. There is only one building or hall of any size belonging to the grounds, and it was filled to repletion with farm products, works of art, fabrics of home manufacture, sewing machines, pianos, organs, and specimens of minerals The display of fruit was the finest I ever saw, except peaches—and the largest vegetables, pumpkins, gourds, melons—some weighing as high as fifty-eight pounds—wheat, oats, corn and other grains, as fine as I ever saw.

The Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe R. R. Co. have erected upon the grounds a building of octagon shape, in which they have on exhibition the farm products that grow along the line of their road, and the minerals found along their road. They had three lumps of coal on exhibition weighing respectively 1200, 2000 and 2800 pounds. Their building appeared to me to be pretty full, yet they told me they had sent off a car load to Chicago to be exhibited at the Exposition.

I here met Mr. H. C. St. Clair, of Belle Plains, Sumner county; he informs me that he had two car loads of agricultural products started from his county, but that one got wrecked on the way and much of the best never reached here. He says that Sumner county is the best county in the State for emigrants to settle in, being well watered, rich soil and a delightful climate. They have had no frost yet in his county, in fact, I have seen nothing that had the appearance of frost since I came into the State. Mr. St. Clair was formerly in the hardware store of Frank Taylor, at Decatur, and from the way he talks I should guess he was getting rich, and wants more of the Macon county boys to share his wealth.

This afternoon there has been great excitement on the grounds; five beautiful ladies appeared on the track, on their fiery steeds, to compete for the prize in horsemanship. Three out of the five bore off ribbons. It was truly exciting to see them going around the half mile ring, laying whip like regular horse racing, and their horses at full speed.

I fear I have made this letter already too long, so will reserve the balance for some future time. Yours truly, W. C. D.

IN the Chicago hog and cattle market some sales and shipments for the East are taking place, but the Stock Yards management request the railroads and shippers not to bring in any hogs or cattle until the present over crowded state of the yards shall have been relieved.

The Storm About Over.

RE-ASSURING NEWS FROM THE FINANCIAL CENTERS.

JAY GOULD ON THE SITUATION.

THE TERRIBLE SCOURGE AT SHREVEPORT.

Aid asked for the Sufferers.

Making Whiskey Under Difficulties.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Jay Gould being asked for his views concerning the financial situation, gave them as follows. "I think the panic is over. I have every faith now in an advance in prices, and believe the market will be more buoyant than for a long time. Wall street has been cleared out of a great part of its worthless stock and so-called securities by the purifying process of the panic, and there are comparatively few stocks now quoted except those of real value. In all cases prices are now too low, and in that of good dividend-paying stocks a very large advance is necessary to bring them up to their actual worth The reasons for an advance are that the money market will become easy as soon as the Stock Exchange is opened, owing to very large quantities of greenbacks which have been disbursed by the government in its late bond purchases; that an immense amount of capital has been put into circulation by the action of the banks in issuing Clearing House certificates, which displace a corresponding quantity of currency; that England is sending over millions of gold, which will come into active use immediately on its arrival, and that speculation has had such a long sleep that it will be all the more lively when it wakes up again."

The disturbed state of the money market has made it necessary for some large firms in this city to discharge many of their hands, and to give others only three or four days' work a week. One large manufacturing firm has closed up altogether. Much difficulty is experienced by employers in getting cash for their workmen, and on Saturday last many were paid, either in whole or in part, in checks. In neighboring cities a similar condition of affairs exists.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—About three months ago it was noticed that many convicts and some keepers at Sing Sing, in the quarry gang, were more or less intoxicated when they went in at night, and many were the devices to catch the supposed smuggler of liquor On Friday night one of the guards heard a convict talking in his cell and say: "I've always been a good friend to you, why dont you set up straight."—The guard looked in and saw the convict addressing a pop-bottle which he then took from him. It had the oder of whisky, and the convict was drunk. On being questioned by the Warden, he said he bought the whisky from the quarry distillery at $1 per bottle, under a ledge hidden by some boards. The Warden found John Short, an ex-convict, at work in his distillery; he had an iron kettle boarded over, which he used as a boiler; some old barrels contained the mash, which was a mass of bread, corn, tomatoes, apples, potatoes and carrots. The still was in full blast and from a half-inch gas-pipe twisted into a worm ran a good stream of tolerably fair spirits. John was searched, and $600 was found in his possession. He sold his stuff at $1 per pop-bottle. The keepers he said were good customers and helped him rig up his establishment, and he had just completed arrangements to supply some neighboring saloons with his products. The still produced an average of five gallons a day.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 29.—There has been a well-defined improvement here to-day in the feeling with reference to the financial disturbances of the country. The day's work with the banks has been the most satisfactory one since the commencement of the trouble. Deposits of currency in a number of the banks have been quite equal to the demand upon them for currency. A good deal of old paper maturing has been renewed, and in some instances new paper has been discounted Another noticeable feature has been the disposition of private parties, who have been in the habit of allowing their money to go on the street, but who of late have not shown a disposition to do anything, to make inquiry of the street lenders as to the terms upon which money can be placed. In the general markets a better feeling, too, was manifest, still but little has yet been done to remove the dead-lock into which matters have fallen Orders are here specially for provisions; but there is very little disposition to move under existing circumstances. Holders of stocks are generally firm, hopgin that something may soon transpire to set the wheels of commerce in motion, and when this is done a lively erade is anticipated.

SHREVEPORT, Sept. 29.—Within the last four days, several of the most prominent and useful citizens of Shreveport have fallen victims to the epidemic. The population has been fearfully thinned out by sickness and death. We no longer have funerals. The hearses, followed by one or two carriages, dash through the streets like a section of artillery in a battle seeking a position; a few more are drummed up, the coffins shoved into the hearse, and driven rapidly to the cemetrey.

This is the case even with the most prominent citizens. The Howards have opened an orphan asylum and are feeding about two-thirds of the resident population. There are fewer deaths and now cases because there are fewer people. The physicians were appointed a committee to investigate the origin of the epidemic, and evidence has already been traced showing beyond question that the fever was imported here from Cuba.

The Shreveport Times of to-morrow morning will contain the following appeal, which the Howard Association earnestly request the press of the country to publish:

To our Fellow Citizens.

The yellow fever epidemic that has already swept away more than four hundred of this community, is still raging with unabated fury in our midst, and the disease requires constant and skillful nursing. In addition to this there are hundreds of people left without employment. Amongst these are many women and little children. All of them must for the present be provided for and fed by the Howard Association, for there is no work to do, and no money to be had The destitution in our midst is as heartrending as the disease, and both are fearful. The drain upon the funds of the association has thus been enormous, and the liberal aid sent us by our sister cities is nearly exhausted. Under these painful circumstances we are forced to make this general appeal to the country for additional aid. We have people among us suffering in want and dying, from all sections of the United States, and from all nations, and we feel that the great public heart will respond to this appeal extorted by the most dire necessity.

Our own resources are nearly exhausted, the well are broken down, the poor are threatened with actual starvation, and the sick and dying are about to be deprived of the commonest comforts which humanity can render them.

WASHINGTON, September 29.—At a private conference last night with several members of the Cabinet, the President expressed great solicitude to have the Treasury exert itself, if a way could be found, to so far rectify the present financial disturbances as to prevent, if possible any general suspension of manufacturing, by which large bodies of workmen would be deprived of the means of support just as fall and winter were upon them.—Whatever government work can be kept up will be continued. The conference ended with the general conclusion that beyond anticipating the November interest nothing further could be done at present.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—£225,000 in bullion were shipped from Plymouth for New York on Saturday, and the steamship which sailed from Southampton on the same day for New York took out £16,000. Engagements have been made for the shipment of £50,000 by the steamship from Southampton to-morrow. It is said £500,000 are booked for shipment this week.

The amount of bullion withdrawn from the bank of England on balance to-day is £638,000.

The directors of the Bank of England have fixed the minimum rate of discount at 5 per cent. This announced increase in the rate caused much surprise in financial circles.

The failure of three bankers, in consequence of the fall in Erie shares, has been announced.

1 p. m.—The demand for discounts at the Bank of England and in the open market is heavy at 5 per cent.

4:30 p. m.—Money rate on the Stock Exchange is 3 per cent. on Governments: United States new 5's 90¾.

You can Save Money by going to Wessels; he is selling off his summer goods at cost. $1,50 will buy a ladies' gaiter worth $2,50; Misses' gaiters only $1,50. Now is the time to secure bargains. Aug 30 dtf

A Purely Mutual, Equitable, Progressive and Secure. Twenty-seven years of Business Experience.

Assets, - $21,000,000!

Safely invested and rapidly increasing.

Within the last quarter of a century the business of this Company has embraced the acceptance of over ninety thousand men as members, the receipt of over $33,000,000 in premiums, the payment of nearly $8,500,000 in losses to the representatives of deceased members, and dividends actually returned (not promised) amounting to over $6,000,000 to the assured. At the same time the assets have accumulated and offer absolute security. The present business of the Company is represented in the receipt of ten thousand applications for Policies per annum, and an annual income of over $7,000,000.

All desirable forms of Insurance are granted on the most practical plans, embodying the well-known non-forfeiture feature originated by this Company in 1860.

CONSUMPTION!
AND ITS CURE!

Victims of this awful disease are found in every neighborhood, in almost every house. For them and for their friends, we have tidings of good cheer and hope—the announcement of a most important discovery, firmly based upon common sense and reason, by which the terrible malady is positively controlled, and its victims are restored to health.

WILSON'S

is not a secret empirical nostrum. It is a happy combination of two remedies known to physicians everywhere as the best means of combatting consumption. This combination is Mr. Willson's discovery, and is founded upon the following

SOUND REASONING.

Consumption is decay. Soothing, expectorant remedies are only useful as palliatives, they do not reach the cause—they do not stop the decay. Tonic medicines strengthen the life forces and prolong the battle, but the decay goes steadily on, and sooner or later the victim must yield. Climatic changes are sometimes good, but they seldom wholly cure. In short, the very first thing to be done is to STOP THE DECAY; then apply the restorative, tonic and strength giving treatment. Think a moment. The Lungs are decaying—tubercles, ulcerations cavities and deposits of poisonous matter (pus) are forming. The circulation carries this poison all over the body. Wasting, loss of appetite, enervation, night sweats, and all the terrible symptoms appear; is it worth while to doctor the symptoms, which are merely the results, while the decay, which is the cause, is eating up the life springs?

These two things are well known by the best physicians:

1st, Carbolic acid positively arrests Decay. It is the most powerful antiseptic in the known world. Even dead bodies are preserved by it. Entering into the circulation, it at once grapples with corruption, and decay ceases. It purifies the sources of disease.

2d, Cod Liver Oil is Nature's best assistant in resisting Consumption. It is at once a food, a tonic, a purifier, and a healer. It braces up and supplies the vital forces, feeds the wasted system, and enables nature to regain her foothold. For these purposes nothing can compare with Cod Liver Oil.—This is the theory of

CARBOLATED COD LIVER OIL,

As described fully in the inventor's circular, which will be mailed, upon application, to any address.

We cannot afford space to tell the whole story here, or to give the numerous certificates from eminent physicians and well known citizens testifying to the absolutely wonderful results flowing from this great discovery. Suffice it to say, it is curing thousands who supposed themselves to beat death's door.

Willson's Carbolated Oil is scientifically prepared with the purest Carbolic Acid, so combined as to be entirely harmless, with from the celebrated fisheries at Aalesund (Norway) pronounced by physicians the most delicate, efficient Cod Liver Oil in the world.

It is easily taken, tolerated by the weakest stomachs, digests readily, never becomes rancid, and is almost entirely free from the usual disagreeable characteristics of Cod Liver Oil.

For every use of Cod Liver Oil Mr. Willson's discovery is of the greatest value.

For the safe internal administration of Carbolic Acid, Mr. Willson's method of combining it with Cod Liver Oil is absolutely necessary.

WILLSON'S

Carbolated Cod Liver Oil!

Is a Specific and Radical Cure for

CONSUMPTION

And Scrofulous Diseases.

Remember the name, "Willson's Carbolated Cod Liver Oil." It comes in large wedge-shaped bottles, bearing the inventor's signature, and is sold by the best druggists.

Prepared by J. H. WILLSON, 83 John St., New York.

Sold by all druggists.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

WE are authorized to announce HENRY W. WAGGONER as a candidate for re-election to the office of County Clerk.

WE are authorized to announce MR. OSCAR F. MCKIM as a candidate for re-election to the office of County Superintendent of Schools.

WE are authorized to announce DR. IRA B. CURTIS as an independent candidate for County Treasurer.

WE are authorized to announce MRS. FRANCES L. HICKMAN as a candidate for Superintendent of Schools for Macon Co.

CITY DEPARTMENT.

...Fresh oysters, at Imboden's.

...Local items are about as scare as prairie chickens, and require about as sharp hunting.

..A new walk has been laid from the corner of Bramble's park to the cemetery. Various other localities are receiving similar attention, and others yet are in need of it. We have no doubt the city fathers will improve the "goings" of their children as fast as the city funds will permit.

...The Bloomington Theatre Comique next week.

...Sol. Sulzberger, an old-time resident of Decatur, has returned after a long absence, and is now in the employ of J. R. Race & Co. Sol. knows all about the clothing business, and we are glad to see him back among us once more.

...Several public-spirited men have solicited our consent for a crossing in front of the REPUBLICAN office. We have pretty much concluded to sign a petition for the same if one should be presented to us. It would hardly be fair to allow our protest to stand in the way of a measure which public interest seems so imperatively to demand.

...California Wine Bitters purify the blood. Armstrong & Brown keep them.

...A legal proceeding—to eat quail on toast to-morrow and thereafter.

...A western man at one of our hotels, having taken possession of his room, locked it up to go into the city, and leaving the key at the bar told the clerk, with great simplicity, "not to wait dinner for him."

...M'lle Fontainbleau, the daring lady gymnast and ceiling walker, next week with the Theater Comique.

...Next week opens the great fair of the west at St. Louis. One fare for the round trip will make it comparatively easy and cheap to attend, and we presume many of our people will visit the exposition in the course of the week.

...El Rifle cigars are the choice of the people, and may always be had at Gardiner's drug store.

...We have received from the National Publishing Co. a copy of the new book, just from press, entitled "The Undeveloped West," by J. H. Beadle. It is an entertaining book of about 825 pages, and is destined to have a large sale.

...Local jots are those little occurrences in which one fellow hits another on the snoot.

...We noticed plenty of people early this morning rubbing their hands vigorously together. We thought, in the first place, it was owing to the improving condition of financial matters, but we learned, upon careful inquiry, that the operation was resorted to as a matter of economy to save wood and coal and gloves, and other remedies for cold fingers.

...The dashing Warren Sisters, the double song and dance artistes, with Theatre Comique next Thursday.

...Moving seems to be the order of the day about this time. Express wagons and drays are kept busy taking household goods from one locality to another in the city.—People seem to be getting settled in their winter quarters, and preparing for the usual six months' siege of cold weather. We hope it may not be quite as protracted or severe as it was last winter.

...There is a good deal of activity on the streets to-day. From the appearance of things we should hardly suppose that the people were very much alarmed about the panic. Wood, grain and other produce are coming into market, and traffic is going on as usual.

Attempted Suicide.—Last night about 11 o'clock a young girl by the name of Cora Thompson, stopping at the resort known as "Idlewild," attempted suicide by shooting. It seems that she went up to her room about the time named, and lying down upon the bed deliberately placed a pistol to her breast and fired. Dr. [illegible] was called and probed for the ba[illegible] of the opinion that the wound will not prove fatal.

We understand the cause of the shooting to be the fact that the young lady's "feller went back on her."

Still at it and Always at it.—We mean John W. Hartley, selling fruit and vegetables, as well as everything else in his line of trade, at the little store around the corner. Spring chickens, fresh eggs and nice, sweet butter always on hand.

Police Record.—Michael McNeavy was in Justice Misner's court yesterday, charged with intoxication. Three dollars and cost paid the bill.

James Donovan was in the same court upon a similar charge, and was served the same way.

In Justice Albert's court this morning appeared Larry Doon, and with tears confessed that he was slightly muddled yesterday. Three dollars and the usual incidentals satisfied the demands of outraged justice.

Mrs. Bowers To-night.—This is the only opportunity our people will have of seeing the "Queen of the American stage." Her engagement here is positively but for one night. Give her a full house, and let it be understood that Decatur people appreciate talent of a high order. The price of admission to all down stairs (except the centre of the house), has been fixed at $1.00; to the gallery, only 50 cents.

Piatt County Fair.—Our neighbors of Piatt county are having fine weather for their fair thus far, with a good prospect of its continuance. This is their preparation day, and nothing could be more favorable. Some of our people will go over in the course of the week, and we may have something to say about the show towards the close of the week.

All Sound.—None of the peanut stands have suspended as yet. At the close of business last night the vaults of the several establishment were well stocked with currency, and there is is no reason to apprehend any permanent interference with this important branch of trade.

A Good Understanding of everything pertaining to shoe leather may be obtained by calling at the boot and shoe store of Geo. F. Wessels, on North Water street. As cold weather approaches the shoe leather question is a very important one, and all needed information and full supplies may be obtained there. Give him a call.

An Unnatural Father.—We give the following from the Belleville Democrat, thinking that if the man named hailed from Decatur, there may some one here who knows the family and may feel an interest in the children:

Last Sunday afternoon, a man named Avery, who said he hailed from Decatur, Ills, passed through the city on foot with his four children, bound for some point in Southern Illinois. Towards evening they halted near the toll gate, on the Freeburg road, where they camped for the night.—Yesterday morning the unnatural parent deserted his little children, and left for parts unknown. County Judge Pieper, on being informed of the destitute condition of the children, had them sent to the county farm, where they will be cared for until homes can be obtained for them.

The County Alms-house.—Mr. Wait, the keeper of the county poor farm, informs us that the new building is progressing rapidly and will be ready for occupation in a few weeks. The house is well adapted to the purposes for which it is designed, and will furnish comfortable quarters for those who are so unfortunate as to be obliged to seek a home there.

Still Advancing.—We learn from contractors in the carpenter business that a large number of dwellings are yet to be built this fall. Most of these are in the first ward, and indicate the rapid growth of the town in that direction.

Cutter's Ague Cure.—We warrant a cure in every case, or money refunded.

Millinery and Dress Making.—Mrs. R. C. Hamsher invites the attention of the public to her very full and complete stock of fall millinery goods. She is now east buying her winter goods, and will have of both fall and winter stock a full and complete assortment, embracing the very latest styles. Her dresss-making department is also complete, and all work in that line is done with neatness and despatch. [Sept 26-d1w

After partaking of an excellent supper, in company with invited guests, the happy couple started on a wedding tour to Indianapolis, where they will spend a few days in visiting their many friends.

ILLINOIS M. E. CONFERENCE.

BLOOMINGTON, September 29.

Yesterday was looked forward to with interest by the citizens of Bloomington and the ministers from this and adjoining conferences. An extensive programme had been arranged, embracing all the Protestant pulpits in the city, and also arrangements for a temperance meeting in the Court-house square and street preaching in another part of the city. But alas! for the uncertainty of human hopes and plans—about four o'clock in the morning it began to rain, and did not cease for twenty minutes at a time until ten o'clock last night. A darker and more cheerless day has not been seen in this city for years.—The result was—even in this city of church goers—that in most of our churches empty pews greeted the distinguished strangers who occupied the pulpits.

The University charge, worshipping in Amie Chapel of the University building, was an exception. Here the centre of attraction was the sermon of Bishop Wiley, the ordination of deacons and elders, the childrens' meeting in the afternoon, and the funeral sermon of Peter Cartwright.—The bishop's sermon was chiefly distinguished for its transparency of style and for the impressive manner of its delivery. It was listened to by about seven hundred persons, about one-half of whom were ministers. It was expected that the childrens' meeting in the afternoon would be an immense affair, so far as the attendance of children was concerned; but this proved a mistake. Even the announcement that addresses would be delivered by Bishop Wiley, Governor Beveridge and President Fallows failed to bring the children, there being less than one hundred present—though the body of the audience was more than half adults. The singing was good; the speeches were excellent, but there was no enthusiasm. The funeral sermon of Peter Cartwright failed to give satisfaction—though well written it was poorly read.

September 30.

Conference met this morning, Bishop Wiley in the chair.

Most of the time of the session was occupied by Dr. Rutledge, of Tennessee, who represented the workings and wants of the Freedman's Aid Society, and by Dr. Reed, of New York, one of the missionary secretaries. The Dr. was in his element and in one of his happiest moods. His object seemed to be to inspire the preachers with a new zeal in the missionary cause, and it is safe to say that he succeeded. The missionary collections are in advance of last year, yet still below the collections of two years ago.

The representation of the Paris, Champaign and Mattoon districts, together with the transaction of some unimportant business, the conference adjourned.

This afternoon the ceremonies of laying the corner-stone of the new M. E. Church, and to-night the semi centennial sermon of the venerable Peter Akers, will be the principal points of attraction.

The appointments will be read and conference will close to-morrow.

Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping-Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Among the great discoveries of modern science, few are of more real value to mankind, than this effectual remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. A vast trial of its virtues, throughout this and other countries, has shown that it does surely and effectually control them. The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that CHERRY PECTORAL will and does relieve and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power; and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attacks of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of childhood, CHERRY PECTORAL is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them. It acts speedily and surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. No one will suffer troublesome Influenza and painful Bronchitis, when they know how easily they can be cured.

Originally the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, no cost or toil is spared in making every bottle in the utmost possible perfection. It may be confidently relied upon as possessing all the virtues it has ever exhibited, and capable of producing cures as memorable as the greatest it has ever effected.

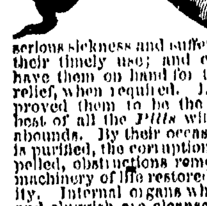

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.,

Practical and Analytical Chemists.

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For the relief and cure of all derangements in the stomach, liver, and bowels. They are a mild aperient, and an excellent purgative. Being purely vegetable, they contain no mercury or mineral whatever. Much serious sickness and suffering is prevented by their timely use; and every family should have them on hand for their protection and relief, when required. Long experience has proved them to be the safest, surest, and best of all the Pills with which the market abounds. By their occasional use, the blood is purified, the corruptions of the system expelled, obstructions removed, and the whole machinery of life restored to its healthy activity. Internal organs which become clogged and sluggish are cleansed by Ayer's Pills, and stimulated into action. Thus incipient disease is changed into health, the value of which change, when reckoned on the vast multitudes who enjoy it, can hardly be computed. Their sugar-coating makes them pleasant to take, and preserves their virtues unimpaired for any length of time, so that they are ever fresh, and perfectly reliable. Although searching, they are mild, and operate without disturbance to the constitution or diet or occupation.

Full directions are given on the wrapper to each box, how to use them as a Family Physic, and for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor, and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach, and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action, or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back, and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings, they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression, a large dose should be taken, as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion, and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

The Diamond Glasses,

MANUFACTURED BY

J. E. Spencer & Co., N. Y.,

Which are now offered to the public, are pronounced by all the celebrated Opticians of the world to be the MOST PERFECT, natural, artificial help to the human eye ever known.

They are ground under their own supervision, from minute Crystal Pebbles, melted together, and derive their name, "Diamond," on account of their hardness and brilliancy.

THE SCIENTIFIC PRINCIPLE on which they are constructed brings the core or centre of the lens directly in front of the eye, producing a clear and distinct vision, as in the natural, healthy sight, and preventing all unpleasant sensations, such as glimmering and wavering of sight, dizziness, &c., peculiar to all others in use

They are mounted in the finest manner in frames of the best quality, of all materials used for that purpose.

THEIR FINISH AND DURABILITY

CANNOT BE SURPASSED.

CAUTION.—None genuine unless bearing their trade mark stamped on every frame.
